Invitation

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Steering Committee, it is my pleasure to invite you to the 10th Congress of the World Federation of Societies of Intensive and Critical Care Medicine and 63rd Italian National Congress of SIAARTI, which will take place in Florence, Italy, August 28th - September 1st 2009.

Italy has long been a centre of excellence in the field of Intensive and Critical Care, and local talent has been combined with a long list of international speakers to create what promises to be an exceptional programme. The focus of the scientific programme will be the “state of the art” of our fields as well as new insights into basic science, clinical research end therapeutic interventions. The Scientific Committee is currently developing a programme that will consider refresher courses, lectures, symposia, panel discussions, workshops and, of course, free oral communications and poster presentations.

During the Congress, an exhibition will be held over a large area: exhibitors from countries around the globe will give participants an opportunity to experience the latest available medical technologies.

As well as the scientific programme, we have planned a series of social events that should allow you to learn a little more about Florence and the wonderful region of Tuscany. Florence has much to offer: a rich cultural and historical life, great food and, during the summer, a busy series of world-class entertainment events.

I’m looking forward to seeing you in 2009!

Luciano Gattinoni
President of Società Italiana di Anestesia, Analgesia, Rianimazione e Terapia Intensiva (SIAARTI)

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Council of the World Federation of Societies of Intensive and Critical Care Medicine, I extend a warm welcome to the 10th World Congress. It also gives me great pleasure formally to invite medical profession and industry colleagues to participate and join us at this major event.

This is the first occasion that the World Congress has been hosted at a European venue since 1993. The excellence of the scientific programme and faculty of speakers combined with the historical and cultural attractions of the beautiful city of Florence will provide a unique opportunity to share experiences and knowledge in intensive and critical care medicine. This will be a memorable event and one which should not be missed.

The central role of the World Federation is to promote the highest standards of care for the critically ill patient and the 10th World Congress will be an important step towards the achievement of this goal. Please take advantage of the discounts for early registration which are available before December 31st 2008.

I look forward to welcoming you to Florence in August 2009.

Yours faithfully

José Besso MD MACP FCCP FCCM
President of World Federation of Societies of Intensive and Critical Care Medicine (WFSICCM)

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

On behalf of the Council of the World Federation of Critical Care Nurses (WFCCN), I am delighted to pledge our joint support and collaboration with the WFSICCM, SIAARTI and ANIARTI to again host a quadrennial critical care congress that celebrates the development and achievement of world wide critical care practice in the Italian city of Florence in August 2009.

The significance of this quadrennial meeting has taken centre stage on the critical care calendar every 4 years and the 2009 Florence Congress promises to be one of the most significant meetings for multidisciplinary collaborative participation in our history.

WFCCN encourage critical care nurses, doctors, allied health professionals and industry partners throughout the world to join with us in celebrating and participating in this important and professionally stimulating week.

We congratulate our medical and nursing colleagues in Italy and throughout the world for contributing their time and resources to the development of this meeting and look forward to joining you in what promises to be a great week of learning and sharing in Florence Italy, 28 August – 1 September 2009.

Ged Williams

The scientific programme will include plenary sessions, thematic sessions, invited lectures, round tables, meeting with the expert sessions, postgraduate courses, workshops, sponsored sessions and, of course, free oral communications and poster presentations.

Plenary Sessions
Sessions organised to present highlights and controversies.

Thematic Sessions
Presentation by key experts and well-known speakers on related topics. Each session is organised on the basis of two hour modules composed of three presentations of 25 minutes each plus 5 minute discussion, followed by a 30 minute lecture.

Invited Lectures
Presentations of high level “State of the Art” reviews (30 minute lecture followed by 5 minutes of discussion).

Round Tables
An introduction by the moderator followed by a short presentation (10 minutes) by each panelist.

Meeting with the Expert
These 60 minute sessions are organised to present topics with clinical experts who will share practical experience with physicians and nurses. Interaction between experts and the audience is strongly encouraged.

Postgraduate Courses
The Congress Committees are organising postgraduate courses that will be held before the core Congress programme. These courses will have a limited number of participants. The Congress Organising Secretariats reserve the right to cancel courses in case of insufficient number of registered participants.

Workshops
Practical hands-on sessions for a limited number of participants.

Abstract Presentations
The Congress Committees intend to emphasise the importance of this essential part of the Congress. The presentation of research studies communicating results is highly appreciated. Abstracts have to be submitted to the Organising Secretariat using the online submission form by February 28, 2009. Abstracts received after this date will not be considered by the Scientific Committee. Please refer to the Abstracts section (page 12) for details.

All accepted abstracts will be published as a supplement issue of the SIAARTI official journal, Minerva Anestesiologica.

Oral Communication
Oral presentation of 5 subsequent abstracts. Each presenter is allowed a 10 min presentation followed by a 5 minute discussion with the audience.

Poster Sessions
Posters will be displayed in the poster areas in the Congress Centre. Poster sessions include a poster viewing and discussion period, during which at least the presenting authors stand beside their poster. The usable surface of the display boards measures 100 cm (height) x 150 cm (width). Pins and adhesive material will be provided.

Awards
Distinguished abstracts presented as oral communication or poster presentations will receive an award supported by the Congress Committees or the Industry.

Major Sponsors and Industry Sessions
Sessions scheduled during the Congress and organised with the support of the Industry.

Congress Information

Congress Venue

The Fortezza da Basso, a short distance from the Central Railway Station of Santa Maria Novella, is one of the city’s most important monuments from the Medici era. The complex extends over an area of almost 100,000 square metres (55,000 indoor); the number and variety of its rooms and spaces make it an ideal setting for the conferences and trade fairs.

Exhibition

The industrial exhibition will be a major component of the Congress and will take place from Saturday to Tuesday. This will give the delegates ample opportunity to make contacts and to exchange information.

For further information on the exhibition please contact the Organising Secretariat F.I.M.O.: criticalcare-siaari2009@fimo.biz

Official Invitations

Official invitation letters may be issued to help overcome the administrative requirements of some countries and will be sent upon request. Please note that such letters do not represent a commitment on the part of the Scientific Committee or the Congress to provide financial assistance or to accept submitted abstracts.

Insurance

Delegates are advised to arrange health and accident insurance before travelling to the Congress. The Congress Organisers cannot accept liability for personal injury or loss / damage to property and belongings of delegates or accompanying persons during the Congress, tours or stay in Florence.

Congress Badges

A name badge will be provided on-site with the Congress documentation. Wearing this badge is required in order to enter the session rooms.

Smoking Policy

Smoking is not allowed within the Congress venue.

Dates

The Congress will be held from Friday August 28 to Tuesday September 1, 2009.

Official Language

English is the Congress official language. Sessions with Italian simultaneous translation will be indicated in the final programme.

Amerigo Vespucci Airport
a few kilometers north-west of the city centre. The Volainbus line connects Amerigo Vespucci Airport to the city centre with buses every 30 minutes.

Galileo Galilei Airport

near Pisa, is about an hour by train or car from Florence. Direct trains to Florence run every 60 minutes. There is also a bus service - “Terravision” - which takes approximately one hour to reach Florence, arriving at the railway station.
www.pisa-airport.it

By Train

Florence is on the Rome-Milan line, with Eurostar trains (intercity trains) running every 60 minutes. Please remember that on these trains a supplement is required and tickets must be bought in advance.
www.ferroviedellostato.it

By Car

Florence is connected by the A1 Motorway to Bologna and Milan (northbound) and Rome and Naples (southbound). The Autostrada del Mare (A11 Motorway) connects Florence with Prato, Lucca, Pisa and the coast and a smaller trunk road links Florence to Siena. Exits for Florence from the motorway are well signposted and there are Tourist Information offices on the A1 motorway exits both north and south of the city.

From the north on the A1, exit at Firenze Nord and then simply follow the signs for Centro. If arriving from Rome, exit Firenze Sud.

Traffic is restricted in the city centre.

Getting around Florence

In the historic centre of Florence traffic is limited to taxis, buses and residents, which makes walking quite easy and pleasant. Taxis in Florence are white with a “Taxi” sign on the roof. There are several taxi ranks in the city, including at the back of the Duomo of Florence, in Piazza della Repubblica and at Santa Maria Novella train station. You can ask your hotel concierge to call a taxi for you or use the following phone number: +39 055 4390. Florence also has several bus lines - buses are bright orange. Bus stops are marked with orange signs displaying the route of the bus line. You can get around the historic centre of Florence on bus lines A and B. These are small orange electric buses which can go through the narrow streets of Florence. Bus tickets have to be bought before you get on the bus and stamped with the stamping machine on the bus. Tickets can be bought from newsstands and bars displaying the ATAF sign (the sign of the bus company in Florence). After the bus ticket is stamped on the bus, it is usually valid for one hour, depending on the type of the bus ticket.

Social Events

Welcome Reception

Participants, accompanying persons and exhibitors are invited to attend the Welcome Reception, which will be held in Fortezza da Basso. Guests will dine on a typical Tuscan buffet, with all the gastronomic delights of the region on offer. Florentine musicians and the sbandieratori (flag throwers) in historical traditional costume will entertain guests as they savour the culinary delights.

Additional artistic entertainment to be defined.

Gala Dinner at Palazzo Pitti Cortile degli Ammannati

The Pitti Palace, which was formerly the residence of the grand-dukes of Tuscany and later of the King of Italy, now houses several important collections of paintings and sculpture, works of art, porcelain and a costume gallery, besides providing a magnificently decorated historical setting which extends to the Boboli Gardens, one of the earliest Italian gardens famous also for its fountains and grottoes.

Gala Dinner will be organised in Cortile degli Ammannati.

Additional artistic entertainment to be defined.

Accompanying Persons’ Programme

An interesting choice of guided tours has been prepared for all participants and accompanying persons. The Organising Secretariats reserve the right to cancel the tours should there be less than 15 persons registered. On-site requests for tours are welcome but cannot be guaranteed.
